

~ Clergy Corner ~

Dear Friends,

November is a month of remembering. On the first we celebrate All Saints and on the second, All Souls. We hold up the lives of all the saints that have gone before us and we hold on to the memories of our beloveds. During these special celebrations our readings lift us up with these words:

*“Beloved, we are God's children now;
what we shall be has not yet been revealed.”*

1 John 3

*“Brothers and sisters:
Hope does not disappoint,
because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts “
Romans 5*

As the trees are laid bare and the darkness of winter takes up more of our days, we are called to move a bit more slowly. We take note of the year that has passed, the joys and the sorrows we have journeyed. And through it all we remember who we are as God's children, filled with hope, lavished with love and waiting in mystery for what shall be revealed.

Sisters and brothers, I hope that during this season of remembering we hold close to one another. I hope we share our stories. I hope we take the time to truly listen to one another. And above all, I hope we all can settle into this quiet season knowing that God's love is near as is the love of those whose lives we remember this month.

In God's love,
Rev. Corein
